

Swedish Discovery Day

The 300th Birthday of Linnaeus

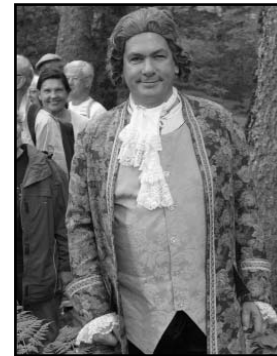

Alicia Björnsdotter

Longwood Gardens®

Sunday

March 25, 2007

9 am - 5 pm

Hans Odöo

JOIN US FOR A DAY OF CULTURAL ENTERTAINMENT

- Storytelling with Rebecca Kelly
- Strolling Nyckelharpa Players, Rita & Chris Leydon
- Lecture on Linnaeus by Tomasz Anisko
- Swedish Fiddle Performance by Alicia Björnsdotter Abrams
 - Hans Odöo as Carl Linnaeus
- Swedish Dance Workshop with Rita & Chris Leydon along with Alicia Björnsdotter Abrams
- Kid's Pot-A-Plant Activity, Swedish Crafts, and a Discovery Cart
- Special Swedish Cuisine at the Terrace Restaurant

This program was planned in collaboration with the American Swedish Historical Museum and the Swedish Colonial Society.

Longwood Gardens is the world's premier horticultural display garden. During your visit, enjoy four acres of greenhouses featuring narcissus, tulips, freesia, lilies, colorful orchids, and more!

For all the beautiful details, call 610-388-1000 or visit www.longwoodgardens.org

Garden admission is required for all activities: $12 adults, $6 ages 16-20, $2 ages 6-15.
Group rates available by calling 610-388-1000 x512.

Longwood Gardens is located on US Route 1 near Kennett Square, PA.